Some two decades ago a trio of Rosa – Horbelt – Sedergreen became the last bastion of live music in Carlton's famous Lygon Street Strip. They played outside the restaurant Il Primo literally translated as The First One. And recorded a CD of the same title mixing contemporary jazz classics with show tunes.

They have somehow stuck together both musically and as friends despite their busy schedules. We invite you to share the joy and empathy at this rare performance of this most cohesive ensemble.

"The Trio captivated as they took the audience on a 2 hour fun filled, improvised musical journey, spanning the careers of all 3 players. What was created was music to inspire the next generation. The experience made me feel ecstatic, I'm still buzzing! A must see, world class music ensemble." Ollie 19
