Girl, You can sing!! You got Gumbo! (Quincy Jones)

Described as a "breath of fresh air on the world jazz stage," Liz Tobias comes to us directly from the Sydney Opera where she is performing for the Ella Fitzgerald 100th birthday celebration as part of this Ella Tribute International Tour. A seasoned performer on the International jazz music scene, Liz has more recently dug into the NYC jazz scene with her loveable presence and stunning voice.

This multi-award winning, singer-songwriter took first place in the International Jazz Voicings Competition (Poland) in 2009 and was ranked 3rd in the prestigious National Jazz Awards (Australia) during 2012 and came first place in Lithuania's Jazz Voices competition in 2014. She is Artist in Residence at the famous Massachusetts Institute of Technology (aka. MIT) and a teaching fellow at the prestigious New England Conservatory where she is completing her Doctorate of Musical Arts (Jazz Voice).

On the centenary of her birthday, Liz Tobias and Bob Sedergreen celebrate the life and the music of one of the most profound vocalists to have graced the jazz world - Ella Fitzgerald.

This will be a night to remember. Line Up:Liz Tobias – Vocals, Bob Sedergreen – Piano, Annette Yates – Bass, Marshall Clark - Drums

Hear a range of genres within the jazz echelon from swing to fusion to contemporary. Expect repertoire from artists including Allan Browne, Georgia Lee, Don Burrows, Kerrie Biddell, Vince Jones, Alan Lee and more, re-interpreted for big band jazz orchestra.

Music Director - Andrew Murray

Award winning bandleader, educator and composer Andrew Murray returns to Stonnington Jazz to arrange and direct The Australian Jazz Legacy show with his band ATM15.

Special guests

Sandy Evans – Tenor and Soprano Saxophone

Saxophonist, composer, multi-award winner (including ARIA, AIR, APRA and Bell Awards), PhD Graduate and Order of Australia Medallist, Sandy has cemented her place as an icon of Australian contemporary and improvised music.

Bob Sedergreen – Piano

Highly respected elder of the Australian music community Bob's inimitable piano playing is part of modern jazz folklore. Having appeared in concert with all time greats such as Dizzy Gillespie and Milt Jackson, Bob has shaped the next generation of Australian artists leading the Stonnington Youth Jazz Initiative and working as a jazz educator.

Kristin Berardi – Vocals

Brisbane-based vocalist and composer returns to Stonnington Jazz for one appearance only. Her extraordinary vocal talents have seen her receive multiple ARIA, Bell and APRA awards, win the Shure International Jazz Vocal competition and the National Jazz Prize.

Nat Grant – Vibraphone

PhD graduate, percussionist and freelance artist Nat Grant has worked as a performer and composer across the puppetry, theatre, film, animation and dance mediums.

Thando – Vocals

As one of Melbourne's most exciting new artists, Thando's incredible voice and stage presence has seen her tread the boards in stage productions including Dream Girls and The Color Purple.

Olivia Chindamo – Vocals

2016 Bell Award "Young Jazz Artist of the Year" winner and recipient of James Morrison's Generation In Jazz Scholarship, Olivia represents the new guard of Australian jazz vocals.

Theo Carbo – Guitar

Winner of the Pat Gorrigan Scholarship, Theo recorded his debut jazz album at age 13 at the James Morrison studios Sydney in 2014.

ADDIS ABABA TO MELBOURNE - THE BLACK JESUS EXPERIENCE, PAPA CHANGO AND DJ SYSTA BB

Friday 12th May 2017 Time: 8:00 pm	For one special evening, two of Australia's most exciting Ethiopian jazz ensembles transport you on an international jazz journey. Dance all night to hypnotic African influenced grooves.
Venue: Melbourne Bowling Club, 138 Union St, Windsor Vic 3181 Tickets: $22 Bookings: 03 9510 5321	The Black Jesus Experience performs an irresistibly danceable blend of traditional Ethiopian song with 21st century grooves, hip-hop and funk. The eight-piece ensemble have toured internationally, including appearances at Glastonbury Festival and collaborated with the father of Ethio-Jazz, Mulata Astatke, for their recent album Cradle of Humanity. Papa Chango deliver subterranean trance-like movements of afro-funk mashed up with psychedelic guitar lines and scatterings of broken brass. Featuring their newest member Nat Grant on vibraphone and percussion, the band let their Ethio-jazz influences take hold on their new album Lost Moon of Bellaris that explores the darkness of space and the lightness of life.

Genre: Cabaret

With her sweetly sophisticated singing, Annemarie bravely leads a collection of Melbourne's premier Jazz and Roots misfits: Bob Sedergreen – keyboards and shiraz, Dale Lindrea – tenor guitar and beats, Christophe "He's French" Geneoux – reeds and mouth percussion.

Taking a well-worn Bossa Nova book lavished with 60s ballads and a happy handful of cabaret pizzazz, this delightful quartet is far from a typical Melbourne Jazz experience....
