Jazz is a litany of great pianists Fats Waller and Earl Hines in the thirties, Duke Ellington in the forties and fifties, Les McCann and Bobby Timmins in the sixties. The big three, Herbie Hancock, Joe Zawinul and Chick Corea in the seventies as well as a few other surprises.

Come on this musical journey with legendary pianist Bob Sedergreen whose career now spans sixty years of hard driving jazz of all genres. Joining Bob for this musical tour will be bassist, Jon Chidgey and drummer Gordon Pendleton. Their empathy will be apparent to all. A must see for lovers of jazz piano - a light-hearted fun romp.

These three exceptional musicians came together to form The David Jones Trio A trio that continually push the bounds of freely improvised contemporary music. Evri's skilful use of soundscapes, David's exploration of not just the drum kit and a plethora of all sorts of objects creating unique rhythms and polyrhythms Bob of course had been on the ground floor of this approach with the famous Brian Brown Quartet.

The trio made a ground-breaking double album called "Intuition" adding spiritual relevance to the music Tonight is a get together after a long absence, however due to space considerations the trio have agreed to the limitations of a normal piano trio, however the musical approach of creating music on the spot will be a major feature of the performance with the addition of some standards.

Don't miss this unique and special performance.
