The instant she joined JAVC sessions as did all jazz musicians who subsequently worked with her in bands like Cannonball.

Chantal relocated to New York City in 2017 and quickly became a regular performer in the New York music scene. Chantal has recently returned home and received rave reviews from the audience from the sell-out crowd at The Lido jazz Room in August.

Bob Sedergreen, piano, Ivan Rosa on bass and Sonja Horbelt on drums are a formidable rhythm section having worked together for more than 20 years releasing their longstanding album The First One an eclectic mix of hip jazz, well-chosen standards and even a Beatles tune. They will provide the perfect accompaniment for Chantal's talented vocals.

Evri's skilful use of soundscapes, David's exploration of not just the drum kit and a plethora of all sorts of objects creating unique rhythms and polyrhythms Bob of course had been on the ground floor of this approach with the famous Brian Brown Quartet.

The trio made a ground-breaking double album called "Intuition" adding spiritual relevance to the music This get together after a long absence, follows an outstanding performance in November 2022 when the audience was left spellbound However due to space considerations the trio have agreed to the limitations of a normal piano trio, however the musical approach of creating music on the spot will be a major feature of the performance with the addition of some standards. Bob and Mal Sedergreen are well known jazz and blues identities in Melbourne's live music scene. Both have performed locally and internationally at concerts and major jazz festivals.

Ivan Rosa is an experienced, driving and empathetic bassist whose association with Bob spans decades, involving many live gigs, residencies and recordings. Mark Voogd is a popular drummer due to his ability to handle most musical situations but especially his affinity of propulsive jazz time a la Jimmy Cobb. Bob's special guest, Rohan Wallis is perhaps one of Melbourne's most eclectic musicians. A handy trumpeter/flugelhornist, a swinging and relaxed vocal delivery and in demand DJ.

His influences include as well as jazz, electronic music and progressive and postmodern music. Rohan always connects with his audience.

Whatever these musicians choose to play on the night will reflect their years of dedication to the playing and teaching of music in Melbourne. Don't miss a night where you can hear a blend of jazz and popular standards
